CRD 290 -- COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SPEAKERS SERIES

FALL QUARTER 2022

SYLLABUS

Wednesday, 12:10 – 1:00 PM

166 Hunt Hall  CRN 27361

This is a one-credit lecture series. Faculty and community members are invited to attend as well as students. Please plan to arrive on time, as this is courteous to our speakers.

For those taking CRD 290 for credit, attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session. If you must miss a session, please let the instructor know in advance. Those who miss more than two sessions without advance warning will not receive credit.

There is one written requirement for the course: a two-page, double-spaced paper due by noon 12/5/22 reflecting on a theme that struck you during the presentations and mentioning at least five of the speakers.

SCHEDULE:

Wed 9/21: Emily Schlickman, Assistant Professor, Department of Human Ecology

Wed 9/28: Julie Sze, Professor, Department of American Studies

Wed 10/5: Bernadette Austin, Executive Director, Center for Regional Change

Wed 10/12: Eric Chu, Assistant Professor, Department of Human Ecology

Wed 10/19: Laura Grinstaff, Prof and Chair, Department of Sociology

Wed 10/26: Haven Kiers, Assistant Professor, Department of Human Ecology

Wed 11/2: Leigh Ann Simmons, Prof. and Chair, Department of Human Ecology

Wed 11/9: Catherine Brinkley, Assoc. Prof., Department of Human Ecology

Wed 11/16: Erica Kohl-Arenas, Director, Imagining America

Wed 11/23: Jonathan London, Professor, Department of Human Ecology

Wed 11/30: Heidi Ballard, Professor, Department of Education