

MINOR IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Minor in Community Development is designed to introduce students to community development theory, to analytic and research skills pertinent to the field, and to the role of organizations and critical issues in community development.

REQUIREMENTS

All units to complete the minor must come from CRD course work
(No Substitutions and no exceptions!)

Students must take the following core course:

CRD 1	The Community	4 units
-------	---------------	---------

In addition, students must select FIVE courses from the following:

CRD 118	Technology and Society	4 units
CRD 140	Political Economy of Regional Development	4 units
CRD 141	Organization of Economic Space	4 units
CRD 142	Rural Change in the Industrialized World	4 units
CRD 147	Community Youth Development	4 units
CRD 149	Community Development and Environmental Justice	4 units
CRD 151	Community Field Research: Theory & Analysis	4 units
CRD 152	Community Development	4 units
CRD 153A/B/C	International Community Development	4 units
CRD 154	Social Theory and Community Change	4 units
CRD 156	Community Economic Development	4 units
CRD 157	Politics and Community Development	4 units
CRD 158	Small Community Governance	4 units
CRD 162	People, Work and Technology	4 units
CRD 164	Theories in Organizational Change	4 units
CRD 172	Social Inequality: Issues and Innovations	4 units
CRD 176	Comparative Ethnicity	4 units
CRD 180	Transnational Community Development	4 units

TOTAL UNITS FOR MINOR: 24 units

Please see the CRD Advising Office in 1303 Hart Hall for more information on declaring your CRD minor.